

Child Protection Policy

1. Rationale

From the moment they join the Loreto Nedlands community, students should learn of their value as human persons. Every aspect of the school's life should reflect a Christian pastoral dimension. The pastoral dimension of a Catholic school needs to include the mutual care and support staff demonstrate both towards each other and for their students.

Loreto Nedlands has as well-being coordinator and has access to a school psychologist from a service provided by CEWA. While appreciating the contribution of these people, we stress that every staff member shares responsibility for the pastoral dimension of the school in accordance with the Framework for the Development of Pastoral Care in Catholic Schools<sup>1</sup>. We call on all staff to develop the kinds of relationships that will help them respond proactively to their students' pastoral needs. (Mandate, paragraph 37, page 21).

Catholic schools are entrusted, in partnership with parents/guardians/caregivers who are the primary educators of their children, with the total education of the child. Catholic school staff therefore have a duty of care to students during school operating hours and at other times when a staff/student relationship exists. Staff discharge this duty by taking reasonable care to avoid acts or omissions which they can reasonably foresee would be likely to result in harm or injury to the student.

Loreto Ministries Limited and The Catholic Education Commission of Western Australia is committed to child protection strategies and procedures to ensure the care, safety and protection of all children attending Loreto Nedlands.
